

Aerin Wall Lamp

SPECIFICATION SHEET

DESCRIPTION

The Aerin Hollowstone Wall Lamp transforms natural travertine into a glowing sculptural form. Light filters gently through its organic pores while a recessed vertical slot creates a refined ribbon of illumination. The smooth, rounded silhouette softens the stone’s texture, making each piece feel warm, architectural, and quietly luxurious. Perfect for hallways, living rooms, and serene interior spaces, the Aerin Hollowstone brings an artisan-crafted glow that elevates any wall with subtle depth and character.
