

Asymmetrical Travertine Wall Sconce

DESCRIPTION

A striking fusion of organic texture and modern geometry, this wall sconce features a natural travertine base with an asymmetrical design. Two frosted glass globes emit a warm, diffused glow, beautifully complementing the stone's raw, earthy tones. The offset structure adds a sculptural quality, making it a perfect accent piece for contemporary and minimalist interiors. Ideal for hallways, living rooms, or bedside lighting, this sconce brings architectural depth and natural elegance to any space.
