

Cylindrical Travertine Pendant Lamp

SPECIFICATION SHEET

DESCRIPTION

Elevate your interior with the refined simplicity of the Vakkerlight Cylindrical Travertine Pendant. This striking piece features a multi-tiered cylindrical design, expertly carved from natural travertine. The raw, porous texture of the stone brings an organic warmth and tactile richness, contrasting beautifully with its clean, architectural form. A warm glow emanates from the base, providing focused illumination perfect for task lighting or creating intimate ambiance. Suspended by a sleek cord, this Vakkerlight pendant is an ideal choice for enhancing kitchen islands, reading nooks, or adding a sophisticated, natural touch to any contemporary living space.
