SPECIFICATION SHEET

DESCRIPTION

The Draven Ceiling Lamp by Vakkerlight features a bold, minimalist cylinder crafted from textured black stone, giving it a raw, volcanic character. Its matte, porous surface contrasts beautifully with the warm glow that radiates from within, creating a focused downward illumination ideal for hallways, entryways, kitchens, or modern loft-style interiors. Mounted on a warm-toned wooden base, the Draven blends industrial ruggedness with refined simplicity, adding a striking, contemporary presence to any space.
