

Ridgeline Alabaster Linear Chandelier

DESCRIPTION

The Ridgeline Alabaster Linear Chandelier suspends a single stem from the ceiling down to a straight horizontal bar, from which three tapered alabaster cone shades hang in a row, each cradling an exposed bulb below its rim. The natural stone veining of the alabaster gives each shade a soft, glowing warmth. Available in three finishes, Ridgeline suits a kitchen island, dining table, or long console.
